NOSTRIIL Operational Progress Report, September 1954

REF: [] 1-411

The following Operational Progress Report is submitted in accordance with FI No. 50-11:

1. Headquarters Action Required:

Decision on whether or not to send the agent on an exploratory mission to the Damascus Fair.

2. Synopsis of Developments:

The agent was met twice. He made the trip to Damascus.

3. Account of Developments:

- a. Subject was contacted twice. He supplied an appreciable amount of carding and operational material, although no reports were attributed to him during the period. He continues to provide information on the Circassian community in Amman and the Armenian Convent in Jerusalem.
- b. A lead concerning personnel of the Russian Exhibit at the International Fair in Damascus was developed. With the concurrence of Headquarters and [] NOSTRIIL was dispatched to explore the situation. He returned with a sufficiently thorough report to enable us to determine that the degree of operational potential in the situation did not warrant further effort. In short, the lead was explored and eliminated.
